Hike, Bike & View Wildlife

Grab your longboard, bicycle or blades and cruise the Legacy Trails' 18.5 miles of buttery-smooth pavement surrounded by Florida nature. To get a closer look at local wildlife, head to Myakka River State Park where you can spot birds from the 25-foot-high Canopy Walkway or see alligators from a canoe. This lush park is also home to miles of hiking and biking trails, as well as several picnic areas and campgrounds. For a coastal hike, check out Lemon Bay Environmental Park where four miles of hiking trails hug the mangrove-lined coast. Climb to the top of the hill at Celery Fields for epic views of 300 acres of open marshlands and a variety of birds. Hike through Myakka State Forest or go off-road bicycling on the 40 miles of trails. In Myakkahatchee Creek Environmental Park, you'll get the ultimate Old Florida nature experience while hiking, cycling or horseback riding under an oak canopy. Walk the boardwalks of

Paddle Paradise

Kayak & Paddleboard

Kayaking and paddleboarding are the perfect Florida activities for couples, families and all nature lovers! Stop by Dolphin Paddlesports to rent or buy kayaks and paddleboards to take to your favorite Sarasota County water source. Ken Thompson Park and The Bay Park both have easy-access launch points right to the bay! Also in Lakewood Ranch, the Sarasota Polo Club offers lessons for beginners and memberships for playing. You can also buy tickets and join the 50k spectators who watch polo every season! ## Beaches & Barrier Islands

Sarasota County's 40 miles of coastline, including six barrier islands, offer a diverse mix of sun, sand and serenity. Don't worry, you don't have to choose just one.

Manasota Beach

Longboat Key

This is the northernmost and longest island along Sarasota's coast, boasting 12 miles of pristine shoreline. During the summer season, Longboat Key is a popular beach for turtles to nest and lay their eggs. Enjoy relaxing views of the Gulf Coast of Mexico, smaller crowds and a laid-back vibe at this relaxing destination. For easier parking, head to Bayfront Park or Whitney Beach, where showers and public restrooms also reside.

Lido Key

The key received its name when John Ringling, a fan of Italian culture, referred to its three white-sand beaches by using the Italian word "lido," which means "beach." North Lido offers lesser crowds, hiking trails and an unspoiled shoreline while the main Lido Beach—replete with lifeguards on duty, parking and a public pavilion with a cafe and bathrooms, is great to post up for the whole day. For those looking to paddle the mangrove tunnels or grill out on the barbecues, South Lido Beach Park delights.

Siesta Key

The eight-mile island is accessible by two bridges from the mainland and composed of three beaches. Families and sunbathers alike will hit up Siesta Beach—widely regarded as one of the best beaches in the world and annually ranked in TripAdvisor's Top Beaches in the U.S.—complete with a public pavilion, plenty of parking, volleyball nets and colorful lifeguard stands. Further south, Crescent Beach and Turtle Beach reveal their own charming personality, recreational options and Gulf Coast beauty.

Casey Key

Nokomis Beach is Sarasota County's oldest public beach and is a popular spot for shell combing, boogie boarding and surfing. The south end of Casey Key, North Jetty Beach, is designed with visitors in mind and is great for spotting dolphins, manatees and pelicans cruising through the inlet. Picnic areas, concession stands, fishing opportunities and on-duty lifeguards attract families to this 18-acre park year-round.

Venice

With a bustling fishing pier, public pavilion, food concession stand, expansive parking lot and a relaxed island lifestyle, Venice Beach remains a popular spot to post up for the entire day. Caspersen Beach is one of the longest stretches of beach still in its natural state and is world-renowned for unearthing shark teeth on and offshore. Further south is Sarasota County's only dog-friendly beach, Brohard Paw Park, where leashes aren't necessary and pups run free.

Manasota Key

Sarasota's most southern key offers four beaches—Manasota, Blind Pass Beach, Englewood Beach and Stump Pass Beach State Park—and attracts nature lovers and beachgoers alike. From sand dunes and mangroves to driftwood forests and picnic tables, Manasota Key is great for those looking to escape the crowds, explore tucked-away sections of shoreline and admire Florida flora and fauna.
