The Keys are Calling

37 MILES OF COASTLINE, ONE HAPPY PLACE

Ride in the gentle, turquoise waves at family-fun beach parks. Sunbathe and unwind on tranquil beaches made of powdery-white sand. Unearth shiny seashells and sharks' teeth along the shore—each Sarasota key has its own energy and rhythm. Follow the call of the coast to find your perfect patch of paradise.

Longboat Key

This is the northernmost and longest island along Sarasota's coast, boasting 12 miles of pristine shoreline. During the summer season, Longboat Key is a well-known beach for turtles to nest and lay their eggs. Enjoy relaxing views of the Gulf, smaller crowds and a laid-back vibe at this relaxing destination. For easier parking, head to Bayfront Park Recreation Center or nearby Whitney Beach.

Lido Key

As one of Sarasota's most interesting and varied waterfront locations, explore three different beaches here. North Lido offers fewer crowds, hiking trails and an unspoiled shoreline, while the main Lido Beach—replete with lifeguards on duty, parking and a public pavilion—is great to settle in for the whole day. For those looking to paddle the mangrove tunnels or grill out on barbecues, South Lido Beach Park delights.

Siesta Key

The 8-mile island is accessible by two bridges from the mainland and composed of three beaches. Families and big groups will hit up Siesta Beach—annually ranked in TripAdvisor's Top Beaches in the U.S.—complete with a public pavilion, plenty of parking, volleyball nets and colorful lifeguard stands. Farther south, Crescent Beach and Turtle Beach offer camping, snorkeling and fewer crowds.

Casey Key

Nokomis Beach is our oldest public beach and is a popular spot for shelling, boogie boarding and surfing. The south end of Casey Key, North Jetty Beach, is great for spotting dolphins, manatees and pelicans cruising through the inlet. Picnic areas, concession stands, fishing opportunities and on-duty lifeguards attract families to this 18-acre park year-round.

Venice

With a bustling fishing pier, public pavilion and a relaxed island lifestyle, Venice Beach remains a popular spot to settle in for the entire day. Caspersen Beach is one of the longest stretches of beach still in its natural state and is world-renowned for unearthing sharks teeth on and offshore. Farther south is Sarasota County's only dog-friendly beach, Brohard Paw Park, where leashes aren't necessary and pups run free.

Manasota Key

Our southernmost key offers four beaches—Manasota, Blind Pass Beach, Englewood Beach and Stump Pass Beach State Park—and attracts nature lovers and beachgoers alike. From sand dunes and mangroves to driftwood forests and picnic tables, Manasota Key is great for those looking to escape the crowds, explore tucked-away sections of shoreline, and admire Florida flora and fauna.

Here, art doesn't sit still. It is a luminous force that leaps from the stage, pours from a paintbrush, travels across the room and sometimes walks right past you in the street. Creativity courses through the community like a second tide—an immersive, ever-evolving ecosystem of human expression that refuses to be boxed in. Here, art awakens all the senses. It invites you to feel more deeply, see more clearly and maybe even take part yourself.

Catch a bold new play in a black-box theater. Immerse yourself in the full-body rhythm of modern dance. Wander through a botanical installation inspired by master artists' relationships to nature. Watch sunlight stream through the stained glass of a Mediterranean mansion. Soak in the explosive energy of a live symphony. Florida's Cultural Coast® is a title earned not by tradition alone, but by the passion of hundreds of artists, performers and visionaries who keep raising the bar on what's next.

Art that Moves you

DISCOVER THE ARTISTIC PULSE OF FLORIDA'S CULTURAL COAST®

Sarasota's arts scene spans generations, genres and geography. And at the heart of it all is the Arts & Cultural Alliance of Sarasota County, a dedicated local arts agency that champions our creative community, and builds connections between artists, organizations and you. Their voice and advocacy ensure artistic spirit doesn't just endure here—it enlightens lives.

Few places rival Sarasota County's showmanship for sheer breadth and brilliance. From daredevil circus entertainers to spine-tingling symphonic scores, our stages pulse with energy. The soaring ballad of an opera singer and the captivating presence of an actor are matched only by the elaborate sets and intricate costumes that frame them.

It is our legion of local institutions at the centerfold of Sarasota's dynamic performing arts scene that truly set us apart. Bold new works are produced from conception to curtain call, and reimagined classics take shape from the ground up. Homegrown talent and prestigious artist residencies converge on stage—from the intimate black-box of Urbanite Theatre to the architectural prestige and history of Asolo Repertory Theatre and the five storied spaces of Florida Studio Theatre. Be it a provocative premiere unique to Sarasota or a stirring rendition of a beloved Broadway show, the season's playbills alone are worth the trip. As are the powerhouse vocals enveloping audiences in sound and emotion inside the remarkably opulent Sarasota Opera House. While the musicians of Sarasota Orchestra and area symphonies unleash rich compositions that linger long after the final note fades, dance goes beyond technique and grace—with acclaimed companies like Sarasota Contemporary Dance and The Sarasota Ballet pushing boundaries through evocative stories and soul in motion. And only in Sarasota can you experience The Circus Arts Conservatory, reviving the region's circus legacy with breathtaking acrobatics, daring aerialists and throwback thrills. Of course, the show doesn't stop when the circus packs up its Big Top for the season...

Here, performance goes beyond marquee venues and ticketed doors—it reaches into classrooms, outdoor spaces and unexpected places. It's not unusual to stumble upon a jazz band playing along the bayfront, or getting swept up in a dance group livening up a public park or pavilion. From watching spontaneous shows unfold to becoming apart of them, discover flying trapeze camps, ballroom dance lessons, improv acting classes of all skill levels and more to fuel your curiosity all year-long. The curtain is always rising somewhere in Sarasota County—and often, in ways you don't see coming.
